

Course Description

Critical Decision Making AMS285

Professionals are constantly faced with making difficult decisions that can directly impact their organization's ability to accomplish its strategic goals. This workshop discusses the areas most relevant to the critical decision making process and will help participants identify best practices and critical thinking methods that lead to solid business decision making.

After completion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Discuss how emotion and fact conflict in the decision process
- Review best practices for collaborative decision making
- Learn personal discipline techniques important to the decision process
- Understand the relevance of critical thinking in the decision process
- Validate decisions with the use of mind maps and force field analysis
- Create presentations to support decisions

Format

This course is highly interactive and adaptive to class interests and needs. A lecture/discussion approach is used and is accompanied by hands-on exercises. This class is also deliverable via our live on-line training technology.

Delivery Options

Duration

Half Day/Online 3 hours

Who Should Attend

Professionals responsible for making decisions that impact their organization or staff will benefit from attending this workshop.