

Course Description

Leading Without Authority AMS288

Overview

This workshop is meant to help participants recognize, embrace and develop the skills necessary to become self directed leaders in a matrixed business environment. The learning path follows the journey of becoming personally confident to lead, opening yourself to team based leadership, and identifying some common challenges associated with leading without authority. This program is highly interactive and introduces scenario based learning modules to enhance the practical application of the tools and techniques participants will be exposed to. Upon completion of the program, participants will be able to more effectively embrace the vision of their leadership goal and align them to the strategy of the organization.

After completion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Explore and understand the art of leadership
- Implement characteristics of effective leaders
- Use techniques learned about how to lead without authority
- Turn leadership challenges into leadership strengths
- Demonstrate effective team leadership strategies

Format

The format of the course is highly interactive and how-to oriented. Discussion of concepts and principles is followed by exercises.
